An update from Katie Lam MP

As everyone in the Weald gears up for garden parties, village fêtes, strawberries and cream – and perhaps a glass (or two) of English wine for the more indulgent among us – it feels like summer is finally here.

Come rain or shine, it's been another busy few weeks both in Parliament and across the constituency. It's a real privilege to meet so many people quietly doing extraordinary things.

I've had a great time visiting various primary schools over the last few months. It seems like everywhere I go the enthusiasm of the pupils and dedication of the staff are clear to see. I want to visit every school in the Weald, so if I owe you a visit please get in touch. I usually speak a bit about being an MP and answer any questions about my role, our political system and public service more generally.

It was a pleasure to join the Big Cat Sanctuary's 25th anniversary festivities in Headcorn. A bit different from the farm animals I usually meet – but just as impressive! A big thank you to the Managing Director Cam Whitlock for showing me around. It's a brilliant day out.

In Westminster, I was joined last month by some fantastic work experience students: Imogen, Alex, and Perla. It was encouraging to see such switched-on, engaged young people asking thoughtful questions and sharing their ideas. They also had the opportunity to ask me whatever they wanted, from how I got my start in politics to my dog Bailey's favourite activity!

I'm always on the lookout for young people interested in politics. This summer, I have a great group doing voluntary placements in my Campaign Office in Tenterden. This role would suit someone keen to gain hands-on experience in a political office and on the campaign trail.

You can join me for any or all of July, August, and September. If you, or anyone you know, might be interested, please get in touch with my Campaign Manager Alex at campaigns@katieforkent.com as soon as possible.

And finally, I was proud to speak up in Westminster for English wine production, in the middle of English Wine Week. Kent's vineyards are world-class, and I'll keep pushing for the recognition and support they deserve. I hope you'll join me in supporting our Kentish producers over the summer by buying local wherever possible!

Village Hall News – August Newsletter

Dear All,

As you all probably know by now the hall will be closed for the electrical rewire to take place for four weeks between Monday 4th August and Friday 29th August. As trustees we are confident that the work can be completed within this timeframe but with all projects of this nature you never know what unexpected problems might arise and I will endeavour to keep you updated as soon as possible if there is any unexpected delay with the reopening. Hopefully this will not be necessary and of course if the work is completed before the end of August we will endeavour to reopen the hall as soon as possible.

We will need to carry out some making good to the internal fabric of the hall once the rewire is complete to make the hall safe for hall users and then redecorate internally. The redecoration and any non-essential making good will be undertaken during the break over the Christmas period after the Christmas Quiz which will be held on Saturday 13th December and before the Panto which will be held on Saturday 10th January.

Whilst the electrical works are being completed there will be some alternative temporary arrangements in place in order to keep any disruption to hall users to a minimum as follows:

Coffee Mornings - There will be 3 coffee mornings which will be held at the Church on Tuesday 5th, Tuesday 19th and Tuesday 26th August 12.00 noon -2.00 pm. Please note there will not be a coffee morning on Tuesday 12th August. We are trying to arrange for the Post Office to attend these coffee mornings, and I look forward to this in hope rather than expectation.

Farmer's Market – Weather permitting the farmer's market will be held on the village green for the four Fridays of 8th, 15th, 22nd & 29th August 1pm to 3pm.

Pilates Classes – Will be held at Ulcombe Village Hall at the usual time of 9.30 am to 10.30 am on a Tuesday morning whilst the village hall is closed.

The trustees look forward to welcoming you all back to the hall in September and as always, we thank you for your ongoing support for the village hall.

Kind Regards

The Grafty Gourmet

This is another very simple yet great summer recipe. Strawberries with an Italian twist.

If like me, you like Limoncello, then you'll love this !

INDIVIDUAL STRAWBERRY & LIMONCELLO CHEESECAKES

200g of strawberries, hulled and quartered

75ml of limoncello

50g of icing sugar

250g tub of mascarpone cheese

150g of full-fat cream cheese

2 teaspoons of vanilla bean paste

150g of amaretti biscuits

25g of toasted flaked almonds

1. Mix together the strawberries, limoncello and icing sugar in a bowl and leave for 10 minutes for the strawberries to soak.
2. With a hand-held electric whisk, gently beat together the mascarpone, cream cheese and vanilla bean paste until smooth. Strain the strawberries over a bowl and set aside. Add the limoncello liquid to the mascarpone mixture and beat to combine.
3. Put the amaretti biscuits in a food bag and crush with a rolling pin into large crumbs, then divide among 4 to 6 250ml glasses or dessert bowls, reserving about 2 tablespoons of the biscuit pieces.
4. Spoon the mascarpone mixture over the biscuits, and top with the strawberries, almonds and reserved biscuit crumbs.

Gardening Tips

Gardening tips for August

- Keep beds and containers looking good by regular dead heading and cutting back dead growth
- Harvest vegetables regularly so they keep on producing
- Water and feed containers. If you are going away put all your pots in the shade with saucers/receptacles under and hope for rain! Or ask a neighbour
- Trim hedges, particularly evergreen hedges
- Collect seeds
- Sow hardy annuals
- Take semi ripe cuttings of salvia and hydrangeas
- Pinch out the tops of tomato plants growing in the greenhouse, so fruits develop. Can also do the same for cucumbers and squash
- And there's always weeding!

Sue's Blog – nature notes

The dry spring and warm early summer have been a bonus for the insects; you may have had the pleasure of butterflies dancing around your garden recently. The cabbage whites have naturally laid their eggs on my cavolo nero (preferring that to the sprouting broccoli) and the caterpillars are decimating the leaves! However, there is a wasps' nest in the crevices of the dry-stone wall on one of my boundaries and now the wasps are gorging themselves on the caterpillars! Food chain in action!

This is the time of year to take part in the Big Butterfly Count (last day 10th August); there is a helpful web site that has identification information and how to take part.

Take part in the Big Butterfly Count | Garden Organic

Recently, the gardening club visited a garden which had been recently created but mature enough to give plenty of interest and with a very pleasing effect. Chatting with the owner I described the garden I have inherited, and her comment was 'that's quite dated'! Suddenly, I am seeing how I can revamp the planting to make my plot more of an artist's pallet.

Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy

Friday, August 8th

Performance begins 19.30, doors open 19.00

Running time 2 hrs 5 mins, director: Michael Morris

For August, we turn to the brand-new chapter in the Bridget Jones story, which is bound to bring a dose of comedy and romance. Bridget is played wonderfully as always by Renée Zellweger. In Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy (2025), the final instalment in the story, Bridget is trying to cope with life as a single working mother, with support from her friends and family. Ex-love Daniel (Hugh Grant) and new romantic interests add further complications to her life. A heart-warming British comedy, come along for that feel-good factor.

Our September 12th performance is California Suite (1978) which was the winning film in our audience vote for this season. The late Dame Maggie Smith is part of an all-star cast in this fabulous comedy.

We'd like to thank everyone who joined us for our June performance of Wicked. Between the takings from the night and an additional gift from Lenham Film Club, we were able to donate the wonderful sum of £500 to Lenham Nursery School in the name of Ian George, our late treasurer.

Please get in touch for more information or to join our mailing list.

Admission: Adults £5, under 16s £2; cash only, card payments not accepted.

News from St. Nicolas Church – August 2025

We have some more news from Rev. John Huggins. He is now planning to take some services around the benefice during August. He is hoping to be with us at St.Nicolas for our 9.30am service on the 17th of August. He has made good progress, so we are grateful that we are able to see him before he and Lorraine leave us in September.

Usual reminders

The church porch is open at all times and gives refuge from the weather, rain or shine. A quiet spot to sit and enjoy the beautiful location, have a hot drink and a biscuit, and even make use of the bible on the windowsill. Feel free to top up the kettle and jug if needed (or the dog bowl) from the tap at the back of the church, around the corner beyond the West Door.

Personal prayer requests can be left here and will pray for in the church later.

The mini food bank is for anyone in need. A larger food bank is at the back of St. Mary's church in Lenham, open daily from 10.00am-4.00pm.

St.Nicolas' main church building is open for services, cleaning, meetings etc., please contact the churchwardens for a key, if you wish to visit at other times.

Village Cake and Coffee time will take place in St.Nicolas during August, with the Post Office. Hoping for some lovely weather so we can enjoy the rural scene outside, hopefully with our chicken neighbours. The timing remains the same from 12.00 noon-2.00pm, with the Post Office from 12.45pm-2.15pm.

This month we have been able to give £100 to The Seeing Dog Alliance, a worthwhile charity training dogs for the blind. They are a smaller training scheme than the more well known 'Guide Dogs for the Blind', with different methods and equally devoted and dedicated trainers. Well worth looking them up on-line if you wish to learn more.

News

The Farmers' Market. We will be taking a break from manning a stall until August 22nd. This will enable us to keep up our energies for the Cream Teas this summer and not have total overload of scone-making!

Cream Teas. We hosted the first of the 4 Cream Teas on Sunday 20th July. The weather was not perfect but cleared up enough for guests to move outside later on.

They continue on Sundays, 27th July, 3rd and 10th of August. Hope you enjoy seeing our newest and most enthusiastic staff members, many thanks to Angela for the photo.

Wedding

On Friday 1st August Rebecca and William will be marrying in St.Nicolas Church at 1.00pm. We send our good wishes, congratulations and prayers for the couple and for their future life together.

Farewell

On Monday 21st July, family and friends said their farewell to Ron Galton in St.Nicolas Church. There was much appreciation for the kind words about Ron's life and service in the community. We send condolences and prayers to his family and friends as they mourn their loss.

An impressive arrival at the church.

A recent photo of Ron, Robert and Kenneth, more than 45 years of service as chairmen of Boughton Malherbe Parish Council between them! – featured on front cover.

Thanks

Perhaps this is an opportunity to express our thanks to all in our community who give so much of their time and energy to take on the important and mostly unnoticed tasks that keep our communities functioning, for our wellbeing and cohesion.

We thank God for them all, those we know and those we have not met.

Rest for the Soul

August is here! The days are longer, the sun is shining, and it's (usually) warm and pleasant! For many, August brings a much-needed chance to slow down. With my children on school holidays, it's great fun to spend more time together as a family, though I must admit, the noise levels around the house do rise a bit! August often means time off work, whether you're heading away on holiday or simply enjoying a slower pace at home. It's a natural moment to pause, breathe, and reset.

Going on holiday often gives us the space to stop, enjoy, and rest from the busyness of life. But there is a kind of rest that goes even deeper, a rest that no exotic destination, full-board hotel, or lazy days on the beach can provide.

As the psalmist writes:

"Truly my soul finds rest in God; my salvation comes from him. Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress; I will never be shaken." (Psalm 62:1-2)

Our souls were made to find their deepest rest in their Creator. These verses reveal a God who is not distant or indifferent to our wellbeing. Instead, He desires to shelter us so that we may find strength in His presence. In Him, our souls can be refreshed and renewed, no matter what life's external circumstances might be.

So, whether your jet-setting off to sun, sea, and sand or facing a summer with little physical rest in sight, remember that God's rest is always available. Whatever your situation, this summer offers the chance to experience a deep peace, a peace that reminds us we are loved and steadies us amid life's pressures. It's a rest that lasts beyond the final day of holiday, a rest for our souls.
